ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 16th January, 2006)

The following order of the Court was passed by

D.R. DESHMUKH, J:

The only ground urged before us in this appeal is that the MACT while awarding compensation did not take into consideration the medical expenses incurred as also the personal disability suffered by the injured. We have gone through the award passed by the learned MACT and find that the doctor examined before the MACT has stated that no permanent disability was suffered by the injured. Besides, learned MACT has awarded the entire medical expenses of Rs.93,000/- incurred by the appellant and also awarded Rs.10,000/- towards mental pain and suffering. Leanred MACT has also awarded Rs.10,000/- towards future sufferings. In our considered opinion, the compensation awarded by the learned MACT is just and proper and does not call for any interference.

We find no substance in this appeal. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal.

No costs.
